Dear Colleagues,

UKNSCN INTERIM BULLETIN - *STEM CELL IMAGING WORKSHOP, LONDON, 24 JUNE

As a supplement to last week's formal UKNSCN Bulletin (No.17), you are invited to note a further event taking place this month. The East of England Stem Cell Network (EESCN) has teamed up with the Sensors and Instrumentation Knowledge Transfer Network (SIKTN) to host a one-day meeting on Stem Cell Imaging which will take place on 24 June from 10am to 4pm at 76 Portland Place, London. Attendance at the workshop is free but interested delegates must register via the link below, which also includes programme information. The workshop aims to articulate the imaging requirements of the stem cell community and present case studies on new imaging technologies.
